

External environment	Reprisals against human rights defenders and civil society organisations	Medium	High	Continuous monitoring throughout implementation. Apply conflict sensitivity assessments when required, mitigating the risk of exacerbating tensions and divisions as well as protecting the security and safety of CSO representatives and HRDs. EU political dialogue with relevant governmental actors to underline vital role of civil society and human/ indigenous rights. Capacity building of HRDs on protection measures.
Planning, processes and systems	Limited institutional capacity within all levels of government institutions	High	High	Build capacity and provide technical assistance to government institutions when possible, as a constant component in all interventions. Strengthen the capacity of civil society and communities to maintain the drive for sustainable transformation in society.
People and the organisation	Unequal power dynamics in rights disputes and risks for conflicts and confrontation	Medium	Medium	Apply conflict sensitivity assessments. Strengthen poor and vulnerable populations and other key actors' abilities and voice to claim human rights, e.g. by providing access to legal aid. Provide technical assistance to national and local authorities to implement relevant policy and regulation frameworks.
	Limited engagement in favour of gender equality and the empowerment of women, a human rights-based approach, by the targeted institutions and non-state actors			The project will provide adequate resources to work with institutions and non-state actors on the importance of integrating gender equality, a human rights-based approach, and the rights of persons with disabilities
People and the organisation	Failing to address the interests and needs of groups living in the most vulnerable situations –	Medium	Medium	Constant dialogue with implementing partners on how the identification and engagement of vulnerable groups can be improved.